

IDIOMS		USED IN SENTENCES
Carry out		They carried out the mission successfully.
Taken over		The pilot told his copilot to take over the controls.
Bring about		She hopes to bring about a change in his attitude.
Beat out		He got to the head of line, beating out all the others.
To fall through		The proposed amendment fell through.
Turn a new leaf		He promised the teacher he would turn over a new leaf and behave himself in class.
Bang into		A clumsy fellow, Ali was always banging into furniture.
To catch up		The wind caught up the kite and sent it high above the trees.
With open arms		The President received the new PM with open arms.
Fall Back		The troops fell back before the relentless enemy assault.
Figure out		Let's figure out a way to help.
Take aback		He was taken aback by her caustic remark.
Take off		Take off your coat and stay for a while.
Take for		Do you take me for a fool.
In a nutshell		Here's our proposal --- in a nutshell, we want to sell the business to you.
Black and blue		After falling down the stairs, her knee was black and blue for days.
Go to extra mile		She is a very good worker; she always goes the extra mile to make sure everything is done.
Walk on eggshells		The teacher was so moody, she always had us walking on eggshells.
Keep your fingers crossed		I have a job interview tomorrow; please keep your fingers crossed for me.

Cry over spilled milk Last straw		Don't cry over spilled milk. This is the last straw. I'm calling the police.
--	--	--